This test is a mandatory step in the naturalization process overseen by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). The updated version of the test reflects recent changes aimed at ensuring that new citizens have a comprehensive understanding of the country's democratic principles and cultural heritage. The test is administered orally during the naturalization interview, and applicants must answer questions correctly to demonstrate their eligibility for citizenship. The introduction of the new test emphasizes both foundational knowledge and practical understanding of American society.

Purpose of the Updated Test

Legal Framework and Administration

The new test is administered under the guidelines established by the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and USCIS policies. Successful completion of the test is one of the final steps before an oath of allegiance ceremony.
