Overview of Night

"Night" is a memoir written by Elie Wiesel, published in 1956. It is based on Wiesel's own experiences as a Jewish teenager during the Holocaust. The book details his deportation from Sighet, Romania, to Auschwitz and later to Buchenwald, where he endured inhumane conditions, loss of faith, and the struggle for survival. The narrative is a powerful testament to the atrocities committed during the Holocaust and serves as a reminder of the fragility of human existence.

Historical Context

To fully appreciate "Night," it is crucial to understand the historical context in which it was written:

1. The Holocaust: The systematic extermination of six million Jews by the Nazi regime from 1941 to 1945.
2. Concentration Camps: Facilities established by the Nazis to detain and kill Jews, political prisoners, and other marginalized groups. Auschwitz and Buchenwald are two of the most notorious.
3. Post-War Reflection: Wiesel wrote "Night" in the after
