Persona 5 Royal Makoto Confidant Guide

In the immersive world of Persona 5 Royal, building relationships with your Confidants is essential for unlocking powerful abilities and enhancing the gameplay experience. One of the most intriguing characters you can form a bond with is Makoto Niijima, the stoic yet fiercely determined student council president. This guide will provide an in-depth look at the Makoto Confidant, detailing how to maximize your relationship with her, the benefits of leveling up her Confidant rank, and tips on how to navigate her storyline effectively.

Understanding Makoto Niijima

Makoto is introduced early in the game as a no-nonsense character who prioritizes her studies and responsibilities. However, as players progress through the story, they uncover her layers, including her strong sense of justice and desire to protect those she cares about. By establishing a Confidant relationship with her, players can help her grow, while also gaining significant advantages in battles.

How to Start the Makoto Confidant

To initiate the Makoto Confidant, players must:

1. Reach Rank 2 in the "Phantom Thief" storyline.
2. Complete the "Palace" segment involving Kamoshida.
3. Visit the Shujin Academy after school.
4. Interact with Makoto in the school hallway.

Once these conditions are met, the player can begin their journey with Makoto.
